

More Child Labor Cases Brought.

Hackford, Ill., Feb. 17.—Special Telegram.—Four more warrants were sworn out today by State Factory Inspector John Martin, for the employment of child labor, against the secretaries of the Star, Palace Folding Bed, and Standard Furniture Companies, and the Hackford belt works. The cases will be tried by a jury tomorrow. Miss Florence Kelley, chief inspector of the state, arrived today to take charge of the prosecution.