Dear Madam:

I have your letter of date the 20th instant this morning. The case was reached for the first time yesterday and was set down for the first Monday of December, the 5th instant. I do not know whether Dr. Wischnewetzky intends to press it to trial then or not. I see no object in pressing it on your part, and if he wants to protract it I shall consent to it. Mr. Wakeman answered the call of the calendar. He did not press it then, but simply inquired if we intended to try the case, and upon our reply that we certainly did he said that he would have to get his witnesses together, and the case was accordingly set down for that day. I will endeavor to have it so marked on the calendar that it can only be brought on on special notice to us, which will give me an opportunity to communicate with you in season for you to make arrangements. If Mr. wakeman refuses to consent to this my application to him will draw him out so that I will know what they really intend to do. I will write you again in a few days.

Yours truly,

John Wakeman

I have nothing about Mr. Wakeman has been seen since Sept. 10. I do not see any necessity for any further notice of the case. All the Dr. and the Commissioner talk at touching the suspension of the case.
