

Allied Wood Workers' Trades' Council

of Chicago, Illinois.

OFFICE OF

Chicago, Jan 23rd 1893

Seeing the results of the factory inspectors work in regards the sweat shops, and kindred employes: we thoughtfully appreciate our friends endeavor on our behalf, and as union men, and a union men commend the zeal of these inspectors, and also note the swift punishment meted out to these criminals by the courts of justice.

It is therefore resolved by the two machine wood workers union no 7. that we commend these factory inspectors work, as being efficient, and as reaching for good towards the up-lifting of the down-trodden wage slaves.

Further resolved that we commend the courts of justice, and the legal fraternity who assists these inspectors, in the punishing of these wage slaves.

Resolved lastly to forward to Mrs Florence Kelley copy of these resolutions.

E. C. Carlson.
