

HULL-HOUSE
328 SOUTH HALSTED STREET
CHICAGO

August 3rd '02

My Darling
I shall be first on the wing and then camping so that it may be difficult to write you for several days.

Mrs. Adams and I called this morning on Mrs. Altgelt. She is growing stronger to her great regret, and may live a long time.

Governor Altgelt left no property and no narrow curricula about and made people give money to buy her house and an annuity.

The house is now hers and he is working most energetically at the annuity. He has proved a most loyal and loving friend.

Mrs. Altgelt is literally heartbroken over the Governor's death.

The enclosed shows where New Jersey and Penna. are in the scale of circulation! They are not coming very well!

We had three charming days at Lake Forest. But Margaret feels the contrast between the luxury of the girls surroundings and the pinch of our own circumstances and is rather less happy than before we went. Otherwise, she is much happier and pleas-anter than in any previous summer.

Love to all
with affection
My affectionate
Respectfully,
August 1st then at Highland Park, Tenn. in care of her. W.D. Keen, Jr.
Your loving
Father
