

I will send this letter to Mill House whether you are there or not.

Good bye, with a lot of love from John.

Nov. 3, 1999

Millbrook, N.Y.

My Dear Mother,

I hope you are very well as I am.
The weather is very nice
and clear and cold.
The day before yesterday we had a snow. It snowed for a long time but it did not save any sign of it after it came.

The weather is just right for hunting.

My best wishes at home

birds here now

Carole's horse has been here for a long time. She has been out in the pasture taking a vacation.

She is very picky.

We had a very nice time Halloween. We had a candy pull and potato race and bit at apples and had all kinds of fun.

I am getting on pretty well in school. My art class is a very pretty German poem.

John's and are still at Uncle James' now.
There is only a little water in the pond now but it will probably be before long.

I want to skate very much this winter.

I hope we will have a good deal of snow
this winter so that we can have our sleigh ride.
Last year when they finished the boys were skating.
Most of the birds had gone.
There are some snow
